GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY
CHIEF SECRETARIAT (HEALTH)

(G.O. Ms. No. 58, dated 25th August 2014)

ORDER

Whereas, the Supreme Court of India in the Suo Motu Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 24 of 2014 In Re : Indian Woman says gang-raped on orders of

Village Court published in Business and Financial News, dated 23-1-2014 vide Judgment, dated 28-3-2014 has directed all hospitals, public or private, whether run by the Central Government, the State Government, Local Bodies or any other person, are statutorily obligated under section 357C to provide the first-aid or medical treatment free of cost to the victims of any offence covered under sections 326A, 376, 376A, 376B, 376C, 376D or section 376E of the Indian Penal Code;

And whereas, the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India vide his letter, dated 2-5-2013 has stated that a Writ Petition (Criminal) No. 129 of 2006 in the matter of Laxmi through her father Vs. Union of India and others has been filed before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the context of acid attack, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in its Judgment, dated 31-8-2012 has directed the Union Home Secretary to discuss the enactment of appropriate provisions for effective regulation of sale of acids in States/Union Territories and one of the reliefs prayed for by the petitioner was to direct the respondent to appoint and constitute a committee for adopting measures for proper treatment, after care and rehabilitation of the victim of acid attack;

And whereas, the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2013 (No. 13 of 2013), which came into force on 3rd February 2013 and has been gazetted on 2nd April 2013 and as per section 357C inserted in Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 by amendment, it has been provided that "All hospitals, public or private, whether run by the Central Government, the State Government, Local Bodies or any other person, shall immediately provide the first-aid or medical treatment free of cost to the victims of any offence covered under sections 326A, 376, 376A, 376B, 376C, 376D or section 376E of the Indian Penal Code and shall immediately inform the police of such incident;

And whereas, section 326A of the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2013 provides for voluntarily causing grievous hurt by use of acid, etc., section 376 deals with the punishment for rape, section 376A speaks about punishment for causing death or resulting in persistent vegetative state of victim, section 376B speaks about the sexual intercourse by husband upon his wife during separation, section 376C deals with the sexual intercourse by a person in authority, section 376D deals with gang rape, section 376E speaks about the punishment for repeat offenders;

And whereas, the above issue was discussed in a meeting held under the Union Home Secretary and it has been decided that all the State Governments/ Union Territories may be requested to ensure free medical treatment to the victims of any offence covered under sections 326A, 376, 376A, 376B, 376C, 376D or section 376E of the Indian Penal Code and further, the fines imposed and collected would meet the medical expenses of treatment of the victim and shall be paid to the victim.

And whereas, health is a State subject, it is the responsibility of State Government/Union Territory administration to provide adequate medical treatment and rehabilitation of the acid attack victims and against the above background, the State Governments/ Union Territory administrations are requested to issue necessary instructions to all concerned such as State/ Union Territories officials, all hospitals irrespective of run by Government, autonomous institutions private institutions etc., for compliance of abovesaid provisions in right earnest manner;

Now, therefore, in compliance to the directions of the Supreme Court of India and the directions of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, the Lieutenant-Governor, Puducherry is hereby pleased to order that all hospitals, public or private, whether run by the Central Government, the State Government, Local Bodies or any other person, shall immediately provide first-aid or medical treatment free of cost to the victims of any offence covered under sections 326A, 376, 376A, 376B, 376C, 376D or section 376E of the Indian Penal Code, and shall immediately inform the police of such incident.
